

New Hats

Its the quality that makes the Hat give long wear and its the style that makes it desirable.

Our Hats present a combination of Style and Quality which places them in the front position for your consideration.

They deserve your attention because they represent to you true economy. They touch your pocket book lightly

As for color, well, they don't talk! but they are expressive and you'll like them too because they are fashionable.

A monolith in the shape of a pyramid, cut from a 100-ton block of granite, one of the largest ever quarried in New England, is soon to be erected as a memorial to Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church on the farm near Bow, N. H., where she was born in 1821.

Mrs. Edward Schaaf will deliver an illustrated lecture on early Missouri History at the Parochial School Hall, Friday evening at 7:30. All school children of the 7th and 8th grades also High School pupils are expected to attend. All teachers and any one interested in Missouri History are cordially invited.

We received a copy of the Ninth Biennial report of State Hospital No. 4, located at Farmington, which shows that the Hospital is managed in an up-to-date manner. Dr. Eaton and the rest of the officers are to be congratulated upon the way they have managed the institution.

Married.

Miss Katherine Schneider, of Overland, Mo., and Felix A. Burkert were quietly married at All Souls Catholic Church in Overland at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, February 7, 1919, by Rev. Father Gass. The happy couple arrived here that night and remained until Monday evening visiting the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everette Burkert. The groom, who is on a furlough, returned to North Charleston, S. C., Wednesday. The bride will make her home at Overland until he is discharged.

A wedding of interest to the many friends of the young couple was solemnized at St. Barbara's Catholic Church in St. Louis, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, February 4, 1919, when Miss Adele Boyer became the bride of Francis M. Schilly, Rev. Father Lemphos officiating. Their attendants were the brides sister, Miss Edna Boyer and the groom's brother Theodore Schilly. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Boyer and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Meinrod Schilly, Sr., all of Ste. Genevieve. After the ceremony a supper was served to a few of their near relatives and friends at the home of the brides aunt Miss Dora Grobe. The happy couple arrived here Wednesday night for a visit to their parents.

Joseph Otto and Miss Rose Huber were married Tuesday morning February 11, 1919, during a Nuptial Mass at the Catholic Church at Osborn, Rev. Father Krampfer officiating. The witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Josephine Harter and Andrew Otto. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Huber of Zell and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Otto of St. Mary's. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Marie Summerville and John Keim, was quietly solemnized at St. Margaret's Catholic Church, in St. Louis, at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon January 29, 1919, Rev. Father O'Brien officiating. The bride is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Langhans of Ste. Genevieve, and has many friends here who join with us in extending congratulations.

Died.

Mrs. Adeline LaFleur, nee Haug of this city received the sad message last Friday of the death of her son Wagoner Ebert A. LaFleur, who died of bronchial pneumonia at a hospital in France, Monday January 27, 1919, aged 26 years, 6 months and 5 days. Besides his grief-stricken mother he is survived by four sisters and five brothers, Mary, Mrs. G. Metzgar, Lottie, Mrs. C. Etcher and James LaFleur, of St. Louis, Ella, Mrs. C. Etcher, of New York, Minnie, Mrs. F. Miller, of Grey Bull, Wyoming, Leonard in France, and Morris, Benjamin and Cyril LaFleur, of Ste. Genevieve. The deceased was an ideal young man, and while his body sleeps under the Lilies of France, our heart, and the hearts of the entire community go out to the relatives in profound sympathy in this their sad hour of affliction.

Dr. E. C. McCormick, a prominent physician of Farmington, Mo., died at his home in that city Sunday February 9, 1919. Dr. McCormick, who was 65 years old at the time of his death, was the son of Gen. James R. McCormick, who represented the Farmington District in Congress in 1868. Death was caused by pneumonia. Dr. McCormick is survived by seven children, four daughters and three sons, and a brother, Dr. James McCormick, who formerly resided in St. Louis, but who of late years has made his home in Farmington.—St. Louis Republic.

Entered into rest in St. Louis on Wednesday February 5, 1919, at 3:15 p. m. the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roth
